

Glenn Yoshida Sensei

7th Dan Aikikai, Dojo Cho Aikido Renshinkan Hawaii

June 7-9 2019

Following his university studies, Yoshida sensei entered the deshi program at Hombu Dojo under the second Doshu, Kisshomaru Ueshiba. For years, he taught English, trained daily, and provided translation services for the Aikikai organization. After his participation in the deshi program, the Aikikai sent Yoshida sensei to Spain to teach. Eventually, Yoshida sensei returned home to Hawaii. In 2011, Yoshida sensei was instrumental in organizing and bringing together all of the aikido practitioners in Hawaii to host the founder's grandson, the current Doshu, and great grandson, Hombu's Dojocho, for the 50th anniversary of the Hawaii Aikikai Big Dojo. In 2014, Yoshida sensei was awarded the rank of seventh dan from the third Doshu, Moriteru Ueshiba. Yoshida sensei is cho of Aikido Renshinkan Hawaii and teaches a weekly keiko at the Big Dojo.
